Putting Him in Perspective

The Gift That Comes

Author: J. Green

Scripture: . James 1:17 Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.

During this time of year, everyone is out and about shopping and looking for the perfect gift (jewelry, clothes, toys, etc.) for family and friends to give during this season. The good and perfect gift of God is priceless because it is presented on the principles of grace and mercy. Worldly gifts depreciate in value, but no gift that God gives loses its value.

His gift doesn't depreciate over time. Instead, it appreciates. Having a gift that isn't owed or earned shows that God loves us unconditionally. Unconditional love is granted by grace and mercy, which is priceless in itself. God gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.

Good and perfect is He that has given us the gift of life. God is perfect in all of His ways. What better gift could one ask for other than the one who has given ETERNAL LIFE, UNCONDITIONAL LOVE, GRACE, and MERCY?

He is the greatest gift of all and the greatest gift giver. What gift are you seeking this season? Is it the good and perfect gift from the Father or the gift of the world?
